

Benholm Group Transforms Canopy Kitchen & Courtyard in Edinburgh with Lush Planting

Benholm Group has elevated Canopy Kitchen & Courtyard at the Edinburgh Futures Institute, bringing a touch of verdant splendor to the café and restaurant space. Designed in collaboration with 442 Design, this latest project reflects a deep commitment to nurturing environments and fostering thriving communities.

Central to the transformation are five majestic olive trees, thoughtfully integrated within banquette seating. These trees rise above a vibrant bed of mixed live planting, creating a stunning visual without compromising floor space. This innovative approach not only enhances the aesthetic appeal but also aligns with Canopy's core values of cultivating interconnected, dynamic environments.

The infusion of greenery evokes the atmosphere of a lush forest, a deliberate design choice that underscores the cultural significance of these catered spaces. Canopy Kitchen & Courtyard is envisioned as more than just a dining area; it is a collaborative hub where a closely connected, interdependent community can flourish.

"At Canopy, we strive to reflect our commitment to nurturing environments and thriving communities," said a spokesperson for the Edinburgh Futures Institute. "The addition of these olive trees and vibrant planting enhances the space's ambiance, making it a perfect setting for informal gatherings, whether for breakfast, lunch, dinner, or simply enjoying a refreshing drink in the Courtyard."

The Canopy Kitchen & Courtyard now stands as a testament to the harmonious blend of nature and design, offering patrons a unique dining experience amidst a living, breathing forest-like environment. This project showcases how thoughtful design and strategic planting can transform a space, creating a serene yet vibrant atmosphere conducive to collaboration and community engagement.

Whether you're meeting colleagues or visitors, Canopy provides an inviting and inspiring setting. The lush greenery not only contributes to the visual appeal but also instills a sense of calm and well-being, making it an ideal venue for any time of the day.
